EXAMINER INTERVIEW SUMMARY

Customer No.: 23505
Atty. Dkt. No.: 1944-00201
Date: June 18, 2004

Commissioner for Patents
P. O. Box 1450
Alexandria, VA 22313-1450

Sir:

On June 14, 2004 the undersigned representative spoke by telephone with Examiner Alana M. Harris, Ph.D. regarding non-receipt by the Office of a reply to the Restriction Requirement dated October 3, 2003. The undersigned stated that on December 3, 2003 a 24-page Amendment and Response to Restriction Requirement of October 3, 2003, a Petition for Extension of Time (1 month) and a Fee Transmittal were prepared, and were sent by facsimile transmission to the Office at telephone number (703) 308-4315¹, in what was believed to be a good transmission totaling 28 pages in all. The undersigned explained to the Examiner that upon inspection of the papers in the file on June 14, 2004, no fax reply from the Office could be located and it appeared that a communication error occurred during faxing. The undersigned also pointed out to the Examiner that an Information Disclosure Statement had been submitted on June 4, 2004 with the expectation that the application was in good standing. The Examiner indicated to the undersigned that since it was past the time for response, a Notice of Abandonment would be prepared and mailed right away, and that a Petition for Revival could be filed. The undersigned stated that Applicant had never intended to abandon the application and would immediately file a Petition to Revive as soon as the Notice of Abandonment was made of record.

¹ Although it was not pointed at to the Examiner at the time of the interview, please note that in the Restriction Requirement dated October 3, 2003, it was requested that Applicant use this dedicated fax machine number for response in accordance with a Fax Response Pilot for Written Restriction Requirements by Group 1640.
